RETRIEVER REVIEW

APRIL 2008 WWW.LRCSOCAL.ORG

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

It's no April Fools- the 2008 Specialty IS THIS MONTH! We really need all of you to come out and help make the 37th and "NO FRILLS" the grandest set of Specialties yet. Basket wrapping for the "Opportunity Drawing" will be on Wed. April 23 at Trudy Soneson's at 10:00 am. Hope to see you there. Thursday April 24th is set up at 1:00pm. Friday and Saturday the 25th and 26 are the big show days, with plenty of opportunities to pitch in and help. Don't forget the "Wine and Cheese and Other Delicacies" following judging on Saturday. The Annual Awards will be presented at that time also.

This year Trudy and Eric Soneson are hosting a catered BBQ buffet at their home in Orange so we can all visit with the judges after the show. Cost is $13.00 per person. It will be great! Call Trudy at 714 685-1557 for reservations.

It seems like only yesterday that we were up to our ears in the 2007 Specialties. How time flies! See you in a couple of weeks.

MARTY

EDITORS NOTE

Everyone please note: Starting on May 1st my personal email address will be mstanard@cox.net. The fnt.com address will cease to exist. The lrcsceditor@hotmail.com will still be working also.

We welcome Celeste Young as our new Membership Chair, and we thank Jen Cordero who continued to carry both the newsletter formatting job as well as the membership duties after she moved to Colorado. What a great job! Many of you have contacted me on how nice the email newsletter format looks. This is solely due to the talents of Jen. I would be sunk with out her! See everyone at the Specialties. Thanks to those who have volunteered their time.

Once upon a time a long time ago I was looking for a nice yellow boy to breed my nice yellow girl to. TRIBUTE...SUBMITTED BY MEG NEWTON

Claudia Schmidt mentioned this yellow dog that Susan Eberhardt owned. So I called this Susan Eberhardt and introduced myself. I told her my girls pedigree and she agreed to meet us. Susan tells the story that I told her you're going to want one of these puppies. I might be so bold to say something like that now but I never would have back then. So Susan and I have gone back and forth on our stories for 16 years now. So we bred her yellow dog Drifter to my girl Kaya.

The first litter was born November 30th, 1993 from it we got Ch. Saddlehill Advantage aka Angel Addie and Ch. Saddlehill's Tazmanian Devil aka Tazzy. The second litter was born on August 1st, 1995 from that we got our precious Ch. Kintra's Brianne of Nani-Loa better known as Breezy. Not to be outdone by the girls we also got Ch. Saddlehill Muskoka, WC CD.

Tazzy got her name for her enthusiasm for life. Live it hard and live it fast just like the Tasmanian devil. Tazzy died way too young but while she was here she had a great time. Together with Susan's guidance we were introduced into the life of showing dogs. Tazzy introduced me to many of my dog friends I have today. Tazzy passed in 2001.

Addie always had her own agenda from the day she was born hence the nick name "Angel" Addie. I'll never forget the day I brought Addie back to my house to watch her for a few weeks while Bill and Susan went out of the country. I opened my front door and down the hall over the back of the couch and across the coffee table to the side yard all at 90 miles an hour. My husband literally did not know what just whizzed through the living room Addie went Best Puppy @ Rose City. Addie was the first to become a champion finishing with 4 majors, followed shortly by Tazzy. Addie died in February of 2008, she was 14 1/2.

Then there's Muskoka. Yes the dog that would spit out filet mignon and pork tenderloin in the show ring all while he was craning his neck looking for Pam. I once had a judge pat him on the head and say "it's okay buddy it's almost over" On the way to that particular show Muskoka insisted on sitting in my lap, all 93 pounds of him for 3 hours. Muskoka lived with and was cherished by Pam Schnabel. Pam put his CD on him. Thank you Pammy. Muskoka passed in December 2007, he was 12 years old.

Breezy was probably the most eager to please out of the group. Speaking of groups she took a group IV at Silver Bay in Del Mar. Breezy never met a dog or person she didn't like. Addie and Breezy were inseparable in their golden years. Breezy was owned and loved by Sandra Flanagan, Susan Eberhardt and myself Meg Newton. She passed in March of 2008 she was 12 1/2

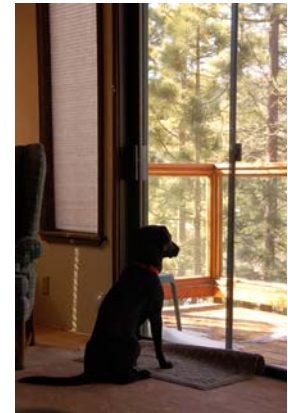

I consider myself ever so fortunate to have bred 4 champions out of two breedings. From these 4 champions many get have gone on to receive their championships, CD's, CDX's JH's and well deserved spots on the couch.

Thank you Drifter and Kaya.
